Scheduling Your Test Online.

Road Test Self-Scheduling

We are happy to now offer the convenience to self-schedule and modify your appointment online from your home computer or mobile device. This service may only be accessed from the RI DMV website located at the following address:

<http://www.dmv.ri.gov>

Make sure that you are on the official RI DMV website. Only official government sites can use the “.gov” name!

For the best selection of locations, dates, and times we recommend you schedule your appointment as far in advance as possible. To schedule your appointment you will need to have the following items ready:

- Your valid learner’s permit
- A printer (to print receipt if desired)
- A major Credit Card (if fee is applicable)

You can reschedule or review your appointment online, even if your original appointment was made in person at the DMV.

Cancelling or Re-Scheduling

Permit holders may also use this service to cancel and/ or re-schedule existing appointments at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled appointment time without incurring any additional fees.

NOTE: Road tests cancelled less than 48 hours prior to the scheduled date and time will be considered a late cancellation and will require payment for another appointment.

Build Your Driving Skills

With a Limited Instructional Permit, you can practice driving under the supervision of a properly licensed driver who has held a license for at least five (5) years and is twenty-one (21) years of age or older. The licensed driver must be sitting beside you at all times. The licensed driver is legally responsible for any driving violation you may commit.

You and all passengers must wear a safety belt or be in a child restraint system as required by law.

Individuals under the age of 18 must hold a Limited Instructional Permit for at least six (6) months and have at least 50 hours of supervised driving experience (with ten of those hours at night) before they can take a Rhode Island DMV road test. A Signed and notarized affidavit verifying that this 50 hour requirement has been met will be required prior to license issuance.

Individuals over the age of 18 must hold a Learner's Permit for at least one (1) month. While not required by law, we highly recommend that they have the same 50 hours of supervised driving experience before taking the Rhode Island DMV road test.

A driver is more apt to perform the way they practice. Learning only from a family member or close friend may introduce you to bad habits that the family member or friend may have learned or adapted on his or her own. You should drive with as many different supervising drivers as possible to gain as much experience as possible.

Be Prepared on the Day of Your Test

Applicant Requirements

- Original permit. (photocopies are not acceptable)
- Completed “Application for License, Identification Card and Permits \(LI-1\)” form (required for first license issuance) *If under 18 years of age and applying for a first license, the LI-1 form must be notarized if parent/guardian is not present or has a different last name than the applicant.
